

Bill Dinsmore
Vice President, Packaging Materials

A member of the TransPak team since early 2008, Bill Dinsmore heads up the Packaging Materials Division for TransPak. Bill continually increases the depth and breadth of TransPak's packaging products and services to ensure every customer need can be met.

Prior to joining TransPak, Bill has an extensive background in both manufacturing and distribution where he developed a broad knowledge of all types of packaging and packaging solutions with direct experience solving customer challenges and managing a sales force. Bill graduated from the University of Oregon with a B.S. in Political Science.

